Pierre Lamart

France is renowned for its cuisine and is home to countless cafés and bars from which the culinary elite and a remarkable number of Michelin stars have arisen.

In the centre of one of the famous regions of Bretagne, on the fertile coast of the Atlantic Ocean, there is a little family restaurant where the chef Pierre Lamart worked during his lifetime. This warm, jolly Frenchman was the heart and soul of his little family brasserie. Everybody in the neighbourhood knew him and the striped apron he used to wear over his chef's jacket every day.

All his secret consisted in his hospitality, the way he treated his customers and the joy projected in everything he did. The line of cookware "Lamart by Pierre Lamart" has been inspired by the experience, expertise and playful approach to cooking of this unique chef.

Leaf spinach soup

150 g fresh leaf spinach
8 wild garlic leaves
1 medium onion
800 ml chicken broth
200 ml high-fat cream
50 ml virgin olive oil
60 g butter

Preparation

Clean the onion, dice it finely and cook on hot olive oil with butter until translucent. Pour over hot broth, salt, pepper and boil until reduced by 1/3. Add washed, dried spinach and wild garlic leaves and cook gently for 3 minutes. Mix this in a blender into a creamy soup. Do not strain.

Pour chilled cream into a smaller bowl and whisk into whipped cream and then gently stir this into the creamy soup. Season to taste with salt, pepper, and a pinch of sugar. The soup should be delicious.

Frying Pans, Frying Pans with Lids

Grilled rolls from wild boar leg filled with leek and cranberries

800 g trimmed wild boar leg
4 tbsp. cranberry compote
8 sage leaves
1 white leek part
70 ml oil
salt and pepper to taste

Preparation

Cut the wild boar leg into four thin slices and tenderize them using a meat hammer. Tenderize the edges of the meat more. Add salt and pepper, and in the middle put the sage, cranberry compote and leek white cut into very thin noodles.

Fold the meat slices to make a pocket/roll. Use the meat hammer to join the meat rims together. Heat up oil on a pan to 190 to 200 °C. Sear for about 3 minutes on each side. Then finish by roasting the meat on a grate in a preheated oven at 180°C for 4 minutes.

Cookware Sets

Marinated boar leg ragout with roasted root vegetables

800 g trimmed wild boar leg
0.7 L dry red wine
2 tbsp. powidl (plum jam)
100 g butter
100 ml oil
80 g cleaned carrots
80 g cleaned parsnip
80 g cleaned celeriac
8 juniper balls
1 tbsp. caster sugar
2 tbsp. quality tomato purée
salt and pepper to taste

Preparation

Cut the wild boar leg into 3x3-cm pieces, put them into a bowl, salt, pepper, add the juniper and pour on red wine. Leave the meat to marinate at room temperature for 12 hours. Stir it occasionally. After 12 hours, drain the marinate off the meat and keep the marinate. Place half the amount of butter and oil into a pot and heat this up, then add the marinated wild boar meat and sear it. After searing it, remove the meat and in the base caramelize the purée with the sugar and plum butter. Pour the already prepared red wine marinate on the mixture, add the meat and cook on mild heat for 70 minutes. Remove the meat once it is cooked, thicken the sauce as necessary with a butter thickener, and lightly simmer this on low heat for 15 minutes. Then put the meat back into this new sauce. Season with salt, pepper and sugar. Cut the cleaned root vegetables into 2-mm thick slices and then into thin noodles about 6 cm in length. Heat up the remaining butter in a pan and sauté the vegetable noodles until crispy.

Pressure Cookers

Chicken stewed in red wine with creamed mushrooms

1 chicken
 800 ml dry red wine
 100 ml virgin olive oil
 100 g butter
 8 brown mushrooms
 8 shallots / small onions
 8 cloves of peeled garlic
 1 large baby carrot or carrot
 100 g English bacon rashers
 2 tbsp. of tomato purée
 sprig of thyme, rosemary, parsley 4 bay leaves
 salt and pepper to taste

Preparation

Portion the chicken into 8 parts (fricassee). Add salt and pepper and rub them in. Place this into a saucepan and pour on the red wine. Cut the cleaned carrot into 1 cm thick circles. Peel the garlic and shallot. Do not peel the brown mushrooms and do not remove the stems. In a preheated pot, fry the English bacon without oil, then remove it. Pour oil into the bacon fat, let it heat up gradually sauté each piece of the prepared vegetables. After roasting, put the vegetables on a plate.

Remove the chicken pieces from the red wine and sear them over high heat in the fried bacon and vegetable gravy. Sauté the potato purée in the gravy for approximately 3 minutes. Then add the herbs, pour over with red wine and cook over mild heat until soft. Into this new sauce, add the sautéed vegetables and cook for another 10 minutes. The vegetables must remain crisp after cooking. Season the sauce to taste with salt, pepper, sugar and then, in the end, add butter to smooth it up.

Fondue

Swiss fondue

400 g of cheese – with higher fat content (Emmental, gouda, etc.)
dry white wine
1 clove garlic
1 tbsp. potato starch
100 ml cherry brandy

Preparation

Wipe out a fondue pot with the garlic clove, put in grated cheeses and baste with about 100 ml of wine. Heat up slowly while constantly stirring to melt the cheese. As soon as the cheese has melted, baste with wine to achieve a thick sauce consistency. When the cheese has melted, pour in alcohol and starch dissolved in a small amount of wine. Again, dilute to the required consistency. Lower the flame only to maintain the temperature. Using a fork, dip a piece of bread, baguette or other favourite pastry into the sauce.

Beverage Preparation

Glasses

Orangeade with ginger

- 2 medium-size oranges
- 200 g ginger
- 2 limes
- 300 g of sugar

Preparation

Squeeze the orange juice and lime juice, add peeled and grated ginger and sugar. Add a little water and bring it to a low boil. Have the finished syrup cooled down and dilute it with water to taste. For a fresh taste, add a few mint leaves and, of course, ice.

Squeeze citrus fruits by hand and not with a juicer for better syrup. If you don't peel enough white rind from the citrus fruit, the juice comes out of the juicer slightly bitter. Add sugar to syrup — this weight is only approximate, depending on your taste.

Baked bread roll crouton filling with sautéed country English bacon

300 g English bacon
150 g young nettle sprouts
2 tbsp. hazelnuts
50 g butter
400 ml milk

Cut the bread rolls into 1x1-cm cubes. Place them into a casserole dish and dry them in an oven preheated to 100°C. Potato crepes with plum butter and poppy seed sauce with cream

500 g potatoes
3 egg yolks
250 g semolina
220 g coarse flour
60 g butter
pinch of salt
100 g ground poppy seeds
200 g powidl (plum stew)
200 ml 31% cream
100 ml rum
1 apple
2 tbsp. sugar
powdered sugar for icing

Preparation

Wash the potatoes, put in a pot, pour water, add salt and boil until soft. After cooling, peel the potatoes and grate on a fine grater. Add the egg yolks, semolina, flour, melted butter, a pinch of salt and combine into a single mass. The dough must not be sticky. Make 120-g potato dough balls, roll them out into a 2-mm thick potato pancake and bake it on a hot pan without oil. After they are baked, layer the pancakes on top of each other, spread on stirred powidl and roll each one up.

In a saucepan, heat up butter, add lightly roasted poppy seeds, add cleaned, coarsely grated apple, pour in cream, rum, add sugar and simmer for 5 minutes. Then blend the sauce. Sweeten as necessary.

500 g cottage cheese

300 g sour cream

500 g strawberries

Basal sugar:

100 g caster sugar

A handful of basil leaves

Preparation

Crush the biscuits in a blender or manually and mix them with melted butter. Put the baking paper in the cake pan and evenly fill the biscuits into the bottom and sides of the pan. Put the pan into the cold so that the dough firms up. Mix cream cheese with quark and semi-sour cream, add sugar, grated skin and lemon juice. Add the egg yolks and mix it together until smooth. Pour the prepared mixture into the chilled base and bake it in a preheated oven for about 30 minutes at 180 °C.

Before finishing, spread the remaining sour cream and bake. After removing from the oven, allow to cool. Prepare basil sugar during baking. Put sugar and basil leaves into the blender and mix. Sprinkle the finished cheesecake with basil sugar and decorate with strawberries.

Beef burger baked with goat cheese and pear sauce

Beef neck roughly ground 800 gr
 Yolks 4 pcs
 Goat cheese 250 gr
 Compote pears 350 gr
 Fresh coriander sprig
 Sugar semolina 1 tbsp
 Hamburger bun 4 pcs
 Sour cucumber 120 gr
 Medium tomato 2 pcs
 Mayonnaise 4 tbsp
 Iceberg lettuce 4 solid leaves
 Small onions 1 pc
 Butter 60 gr
 Salt, white pepper to taste

Preparation

Put the chilled beef in a bowl, add salt and egg yolks and carefully combine. We make 4 buns from the meat prepared in this way, which we shape into burgers, place on a plate and let it cool in the fridge.

Put butter in a saucepan, heat, add finely chopped compote pears, sugar and caramelize over low heat. Put in a blender, add fresh coriander without a stalk and mix. Season with salt and white pepper.

Grill the meat on a heated pan or grill on both sides for 4 and 4 minutes. The length of grilling depends on the degree of baking. Cut the burger bun lengthwise and fry dry on a hot pan. Spread the lower part with quality mayonnaise, on which we place grilled meat with goat cheese. Now add the sauce of compote pears and cover with the other half of the bun. Cut tomatoes, pickles and peeled onions into very thin slices. Place a sheet of iceberg lettuce on a plate and garnish with chopped vegetables.

Blueberry coffee cake

Blueberries	400 g
Milk	250 ml
Crystal sugar	100 g
Yeast	20 g
Semi-coarse flour	350 g
Pastry flour	200 g
Eggs	3
Butter	50 g
Lard	80 g
Salt
Filling:
Eggs	2
Soft quark	500 g
Powdered sugar	150 g
Vanilla pudding	100 g
Butter	70 g
Zest from one lemon

Preparation

Add two teaspoons of sugar to the heated semi-lukewarm milk, crush the yeast and add two tablespoons of flour. Mix it all together. Cover the yeast and leave to rise in the heat. Mix both flours together, add a pinch of salt, the remaining milk, 2 egg yolks, melted butter and lard, and risen yeast. Thoroughly knead the dough and leave it to rise. Spread baking paper on a baking sheet and lightly grease it. Place the dough on the baking sheet and gradually pull it with your fingers to the edge of the sheet. Make the edges higher, so that the filling doesn't trickle out. For the filling, mix the quark with the egg yolks, add the sugar, vanilla pudding, melted butter and lemon zest. Thoroughly whip it all with a whisk. Spread the filling on the dough and spread the blueberries. Brush the edges with the beaten egg white and bake in a preheated oven at 180°C for about 20 minutes.

Household care with Lamart Home Accessories

In every family — even the smallest — daily household upkeep is a lot of work. Nobody else is going to do the work, and to prevent it from going out of control, we offer you a whole line of products to make all your chores easier. Long ago, these tasks were tedious and time-consuming, because women didn't have the conveniences we have now — whether it be a modern, practical ironing board or today's advanced mops for keeping floors bright.

Our ancestors did not have a choice, but you do!
